The screenshot shows the Codio IDE interface. On the left is the Filetree panel showing the project structure for 'jsilva6'. The main editor area has three tabs: 'README.md', '2. Section 2', and 'Terminal'. The 'Terminal' tab is active, displaying a bash shell prompt. The script content is as follows:

```
#!/bin/bash
STRING="Hello World"
echo $STRING
```

The status bar at the bottom indicates that the file 'test.txt' is new and contains 3 lines and 45 characters.

#6:

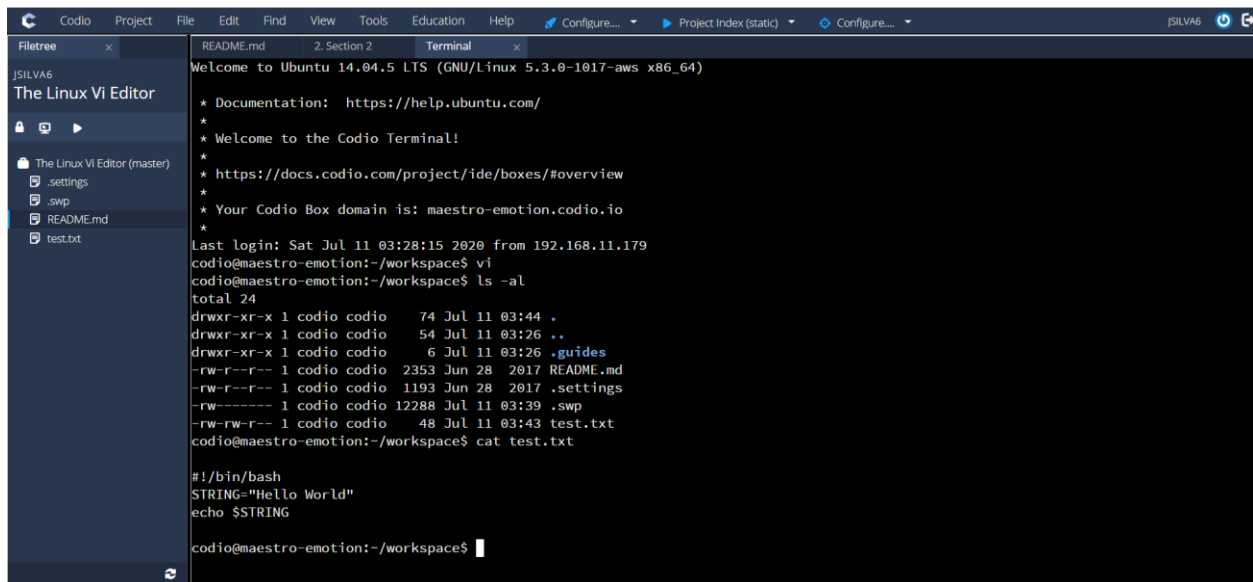

The screenshot shows the Codio IDE interface with the 'Terminal' tab active. The terminal displays a welcome message for Ubuntu 14.04.5 LTS and provides information about the Codio environment.
